

Please continue to limit the amount of broadcast stations one entity can own.

I am always suspicious of individuals or corporations who would override public interest in the name of making the business world more "efficient" or profitable giving away any part of public ownership of the airwaves to private interest for the sake of business survivorship is not a prudent decision for the fcc to make it is no coincidence i learned about this vote on pbs and not from any network or cable news service